Surrender to the sounds of waves, the fresh and floral air, the warm, tranquil waters, and the breathtaking natural beauty that Hawaii is known for. The vibrant mix of natural beauty and cultural history blend with the fusion of east and west cultures rooted in the values and traditions of the Native Hawaiian people. From the metropolitan pulse of Honolulu to the aqua-blue waters of Kailua Beach, the heritage of 'Iolani Palace to the history of Pearl Harbor, you'll see that the beauty and culture of Oahu are everlasting.

Oahu invites you to vacation at the Hyatt Regency Waikiki, the jewel of Waikiki beach resorts, where you will be surrounded by the magnificence of Hawaii. The hotel is home to several restaurants, a freshwater pool overlooking the Pacific, the Na Hoola spa, and enacts a traditional torch-lighting beach ceremony at sunset nightly. Stroll to such landmarks as Diamond Head, Honolulu Zoo, the USS Arizona Memorial at Pearl Harbor, Iolani Palace, Pali Lookout and the Waikiki Aquarium from the spectacular setting fronting Waikiki Beach.

Your trip includes a tour of Pearl Harbor, which offers museums and memorials, sightseeing at the beaches, and an entertaining look into the ancient Polynesian beginnings. Take some time to pay homage to the fallen at the USS Arizona Memorial in Pearl Harbor and the National Cemetery of the Pacific and Courts of the Missing at the Punchbowl. Your tour includes a drive past 'Iolani Palace, the official residence of Hawaii's monarchy, which is a marvel of opulence, innovation and political intrigue, and that tells of a time when their Majesties, King Kalakaua and his sister and successor, Queen Liliuokalani, walked its celebrated halls. You'll see Kawaiahao Church and the Mission Houses, which together form a US National Historic Landmark, and which allow you a glimpse into 19th century Hawaii.

After a day of exploring the history, beauty, culture and people of the island, allow yourself to indulge in a delicious mix of Hawaiian produce and exotic ethnic flavors at Japengo in the Hyatt.
